Broadform Liability Insurance Proposal (Property Owners – Shooting Risks Only)

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Duty of Disclosure

Before You enter into a contract of general insurance with an insurer, You have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, to disclose to the insurer every matter which you know or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and if so, on what terms. You have that same duty to disclose those matters to the insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of insurance.

Your duty however does not require disclosure of a matter;

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the insurer;
- that is common knowledge
- that the insurer knows, or in the ordinary course of business as an insurer, ought to know;
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by the insurer.

Non-Disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the insurer may be entitled to reduce its liability under the contract in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the insurer may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

Proposal included in "Policy"

Anything you state in the Proposal will form part of the Policy document unless we tell you otherwise. Before you complete this Proposal, you should read the Policy because it will tell you about the insurance you are proposing we provide and contains definitions of words used in this Proposal.
